1978 ELBALA ELBA, ALABAMA

THIS is not primarily the place where we have to be; it is the place where we are.
This is not our prison,
but our home.

IS this the road we must walk?
We know it is, and the walking of it is called life.

IT offers us only one chance;
therefore, we must strive to succeed, hoping to mold ourselves into ...

A DIFFERENT GROUP

RIGHT: No matter where the Elbala staff was situated, the group always appeared hard at work.

BELOW: Pep rallies provided a chance to forget worries and "get right for Friday night."

RIGHT: Sometimes school seemed like a big pile of uphill climbs.

OF PEOPLE

LEFT: Beauty was one more evident trait.

BELOW: Students were unprepared on October 3 as chilly air moved into the area.

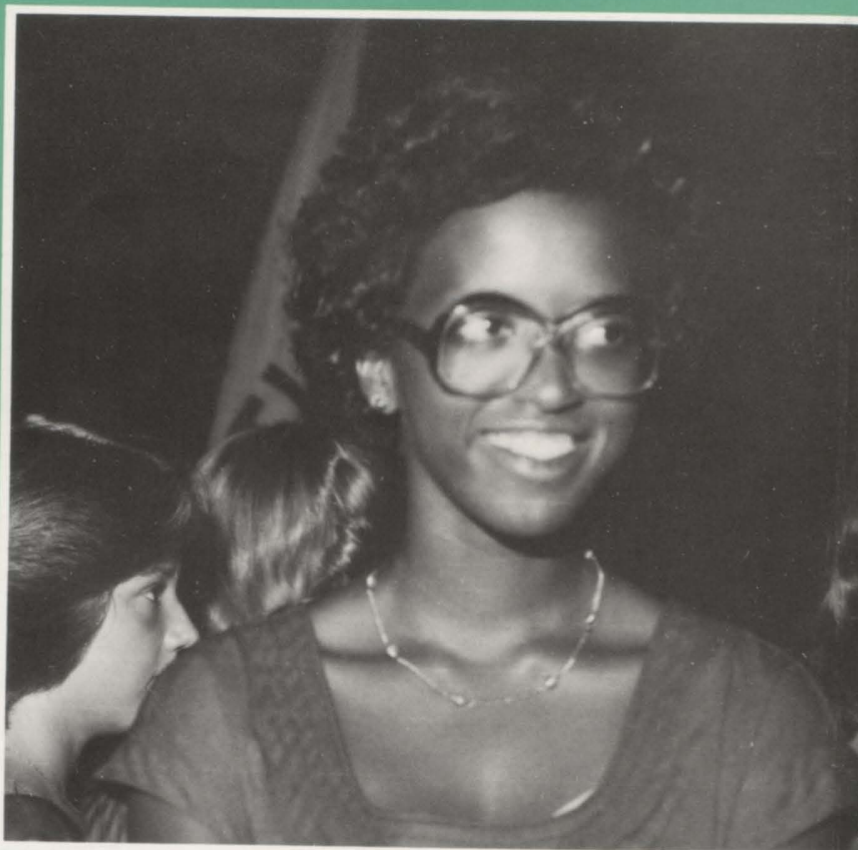

ABOVE: Some people got their arms up in the air over our team's athletic abilities, which were often underrated but never underused.

THINKING OF OUR FUTURE,

RIGHT: Faces and smiles like these helped everybody get through the year.

BELOW: Days were carefully planned, always with an allowance of time to catch up on back work.

RIGHT: Close friendships in school made for lasting friendships for the future.

WE HAVE STEADILY GROWN ....

LEFT: The younger ones wanted to be seniors, but the seniors wanted to turn back the clock and begin again. Something was missing there.

BELOW: Students once handled themselves immaturely, but they grew and developed into normal adults, almost.

IN SOME PLACES TO THE RIGHT: Students often found themselves parts of crowds and often found ways to bring new life to the group.

BELOW RIGHT: Some chose to stay away from the crowds, especially when they roared like TIGERS!

ABOVE: Youngsters were not so bad at making crowds themselves.

RIGHT: STRENGTH IN NUMBERS???

POINT OF BEING CROWDED

LEFT: Students and adults were interested in and supported school activities.

BELOW: Wherever there was a large group, something was forever being accomplished.

ABOVE: The people who comprised the school crowds were those who engendered good relations with the student body and school community.

WE HAVE COME ....

RIGHT: The efficient managers were always ready when needed, no matter what they were engaged in at the time.

BELOW: "Killer" tests demanded constant study.

LEFT: The "Fifties" Day brought out some humor — even the faculty got involved.

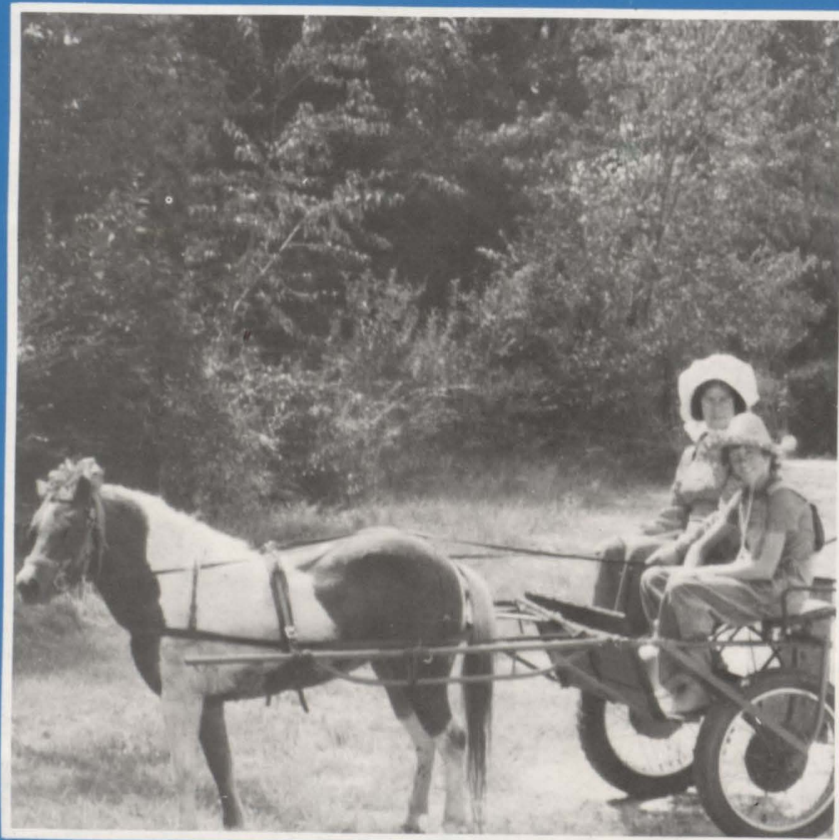

... BRINGING WITH US ...

... OUR BELIEFS,

RIGHT: The best way to get things done is to believe in oneself.

ABOVE: Some people were reluctant to turn loose the old for the new.

LEFT: Working together as a team promoted production.

LEFT: Leadership positions were attained through students' belief: Let the best man for the job do the job.

ABOVE: Some, who were shy in nature, believed in aiding nature by keeping their faces hidden.

... OUR NEEDS, AND ...

RIGHT: Here were just two of the reasons one never needed cheering up.

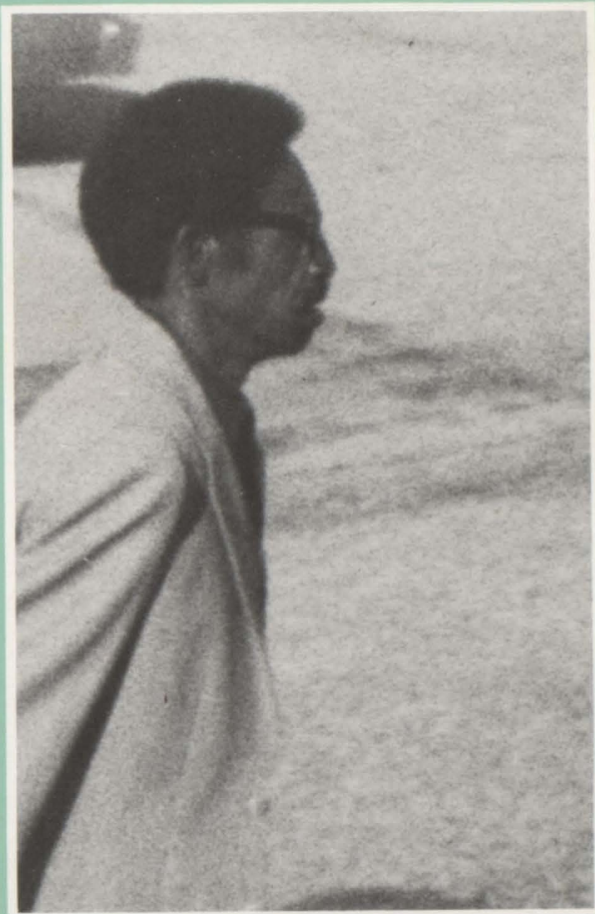

ABOVE: It seemed as though everybody "needed" to have his picture made.

ABOVE: One never needed any hams because there were too many of them walking around.

ABOVE: There was never a need for supporters as was evidenced by an energetic group of cheerleaders who enlisted quite a following.

ABOVE: The need for an able faculty was always being answered.

LEFT: There was never, never, never, a need for pretty girls!

... A DESIRE

ABOVE: Students more than enjoyed going to EHS; they loved it.

BELOW: To enjoy life was all she wanted, nothing more, nothing less!

ABOVE: What better way to have enjoyed a ballgame than to have been right next to the action.

Some people enjoyed being around each other!

TO ENJOY LIFE.

LEFT: There was nothing like an armed escort to get a football player fired for action.

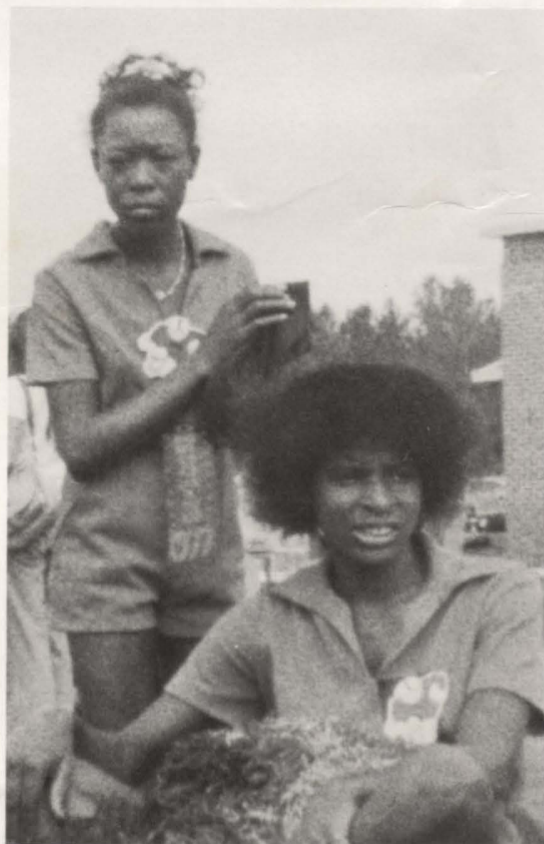

RIGHT: Homecoming seemed to bring out the devil in some students.

HOMECOMING '77

LEFT: Homecoming presented no fuel shortages; yet, a glimpse of this conveyance raised some question.

RIGHT: The cheerleaders played a very big role, as usual, in Homecoming.

The Homecoming game against Dale County proved to be an exciting victory. Everyone came out in high spirits to cheer the team to a 21-0 victory.

Below: The cheerleaders were in their usual high spirits for Homecoming.

Bottom Left: Hearts were filled with pride as the final seconds ticked away and the victory belonged to Elba.

Bottom Right: Everyone joined with the band to salute the American flag on the joyous occasion.

Miss Sharon Coon was honored by the students of Elba High School by being chosen as the 1977 Homecoming Queen. Sharon presided over the activities of Homecoming Day with her usual smile and sparkling personality.

The Junior Class float took the first place award in the parade competition.

Many hours of preparations made the parade a success.

The cheerleaders had an eye-catching entry in the parade.

The Queen's float exemplified the senior's interest in their entry.

The Elba High School auditorium was the setting for the annual Miss Elba Pageant which was held on May 5, 1977. The participants of the pageant selected Miss Lynn Hudson as their choice as Miss Congeniality. Millions of high school students are now pursuing their education in the changing environment of desegregating schools. In some schools the desegregation process has been underway for several years, in others it is a new experience. In almost every case, the continuing desire to improve the quality of education for all students has required that school officials, parents, and other community members work together to solve new and old problems. This cooperative approach works best when students participate actively in this effort because they are the ones most directly affected by the changes within their school environment.

In the summer of 1972, the President signed into law the Emergency School Aid Act (ESSA). This act created a program designed to provide financial assistance to local school districts and nonprofit groups in the implementation of new programs to aid minority school children in overcoming educational disadvantages; to eliminate, prevent, or reduce minority group segregation and discrimination.

Band

The rougher times were during the football season when most of the bandmen's waking hours and part of their sleep were spent either at band practice or in avoidance of it. They regarded band as sheer drudgery and it hung like a shadow over their lives. Of course the band members were aware that there were rewards, but outside in the heat of the afternoon sun they seemed few and far between. The hours of repeating a section until they were about to drop were thoroughly discouraging, especially when they were told that everything was wrong.

Strangely enough, to the bandmen's sun-baked brains it did not appear unstable to take an almost entirely different view at a later date, especially if it were after a contest in which they did well. At those times everything but the happiness and satisfaction faded into obscurity.

And now remembered, it suddenly becomes worth it all. Every moment of that drudgery which the Marching Tigers once held in dread has been transformed into a precious treasure. Those gallons of perspiration that they lost paid for some of the most valuable lessons they will ever learn.

One of the most distinguishing aspects of being a senior is being allowed to serve on the yearbook staff. This brings with it not only honor but much responsibility. The seniors of '78 entered into this year eager to begin and to meet this challenge. They set their goal to make a book which would capture the memories they would want to have kept for them in years to come.

After much brain-straining, creativity, and hard work, the seniors did meet the challenge and reached their goal. And here it is. The seniors of 1978 present to you this finished product into which was poured their minds and hearts: THE 1978 ELBALA!

The Luverne Tigers invaded the Foggy Bottom with a pair of talented receivers and an equally able running attack. Senior Johnny Dyess returned a kickoff 85 yards to spark the hometown Tigers, as Elba ran its record to 3-0. Final score: Elba 35, Luverne 19

The rain and mud accompanied the Elba Tigers to Covington County for the battle of the undefeated. Elba's high-powered offense could never seem to crank up, and a couple of quick first-quarter scores by Opp spelled doom for the Tigers. Final score: Opp 25, Elba 0

Coach Wood asks official for explanation of penalty.

Tigers start what proved to be their best performance of the season.

Carpenter and Stewart halt Enterprise halfback.

Heading down the stretch into the meat of the schedule, the Tigers of Elba travelled to Enterprise to take on their unbeaten cross-county rivals. After Elba played an inspired first half, the Wildcats displayed an awesome running attack to wear down the outnumbered Tigers, and handed Elba its second setback of the season. Final score: Enterprise 25, Elba 7.

Homecoming week brought a festive atmosphere and a fired-up band of Dale County Warriors to Tiger Stadium. The Tigers rose to the occasion, however, and played what was, perhaps, their best game of the season. All three of Elba's senior running backs scored TD's, and a stiff defense shutout the visiting Warriors. The Tigers' record now stood at 4-1. Final score: Elba 21, Dale Co. 0.

Smith doesn't mind a headache, as he bulls over Wildcat defender.

Scoreboard reads 7-0 after Fuller's brilliant kick-off return.

The Troy Trojans came to try to avenge a losing streak of four against the Tigers. Junior tight end Russ Wood had a fine game against his old team, and helped Elba burst to a quick 14-0 lead. Elba's defensive unit held on a last-minute drive to give the Tigers the victory. Final score: Elba 20, Troy 14.

The Elba Tigers journeyed to Ashford to take on the explosive Ashford Yellowjackets. Perry Fuller returned the opening kickoff for a TD, and Elba bolted to a 21-0 lead. The Tigers' defense again stopped a late rally to defeat the gallant Yellowjackets. Final score: Elba 36, Ashford 27.

Style and grace personified—Ware crosses the goal-line for six points.

Wood makes his second touchdown catch of the night to put Elba up 21-0.

A host of Tigers, led by Carpenter and Wood, combine to stop Trojan running back.

Ellenburg shows all-conference form, as he makes the tackle against Eufaula.

Brown goes high to break up Andalusia pass.

The Tigers journeyed to Eufaula to face the talented Eufaula Tigers. Turnovers and missed chances spelled doom for Elba. Eufaula showed a well-designed defense and a lightning-quick offense, and dealt the Elba Tigers their third loss. Final score: Eufaula 19, Elba 0. If Elba could upset the mighty Andalusia Bulldogs, they still held a chance for a state playoff berth. It was not to be, however, as the Bulldogs dominated the second half to nullify some fine first half defensive play by the Tigers. Playoff hopes vanished, but the future still looked bright. Final score: Andalusia 28, Elba 9.

Becoming a Junior marks the turning point of one's life. No longer are we regarded as Sophomores or Freshmen, but now we are "Jolly Juniors." Within the span of this year we were burdened with selling magazines and had the privilege of decorating for the Junior-Senior Prom. We ordered class rings and began thinking of what's ahead for us along the great road of life. We, the Juniors of '78, are alive today and are ready to face the challenge of tomorrow.

Our Business Is People

AND SO WE LEFT.

We didn't leave because we wanted to but because we knew that was the way it had to be. We had to go onward, looking for new challenges to meet and overcome. Although we left, a part of us stayed behind to echo down those lonely halls at night and to echo on the fields and courts. We left, that's true, but we let it be known that we were a group of people — a different group of people — who evoked change through intellectual living.
